

Water Conservation Has Legal Backing

It is illegal to water lawns, shrubbery, flowers, or gardens with a hose or pipes, according to an announcement on Monday by the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission. Plants and shrubbery may, however, be watered with a sprinkling can or bucket.

The statement explained that this action, effective until further notice, was made necessary by the great volume of building in this area, which has taxed the water supplies of the commission to the point where conservation is vital.

In giving the notice to the Co-operator, PHA Manager Charles M. Cormack urged Greenbelters to cooperate with the commission in saving water for necessary purposes. He added that even normal summer weather in this area puts a strain on the local water supply, but that the long drought made it doubly important to conserve.

He added that the commission has authority from the state of Maryland to enforce its orders.

Sat. Office Hours Stopped by GHA

The Greenbelt Health Association announced this week its summer schedule, which eliminates office hours on Saturday from now until September 1.

Spokesmen for the organization explained that vacations by the medical staff will make Saturday appointments impossible. They added that a doctor will continue to be on call at all times, with his name available at the police station, when the office is closed.

North End "Hiawatha" Pleases Big Audience

By June Ringel

The "Hiawatha" cantata directed by Mrs. Lyman L. Woodman, which was presented at the North End school last Tuesday night, was a smooth performance well received by the large audience of parents and friends.

One hundred and sixteen children from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, made up in Indian costumes, filed through the audience to their seats in orderly fashion and sang their songs with apparent enjoyment. The various parts blended in a pleasant harmony, accompanied by Mrs. H. B. Horton at the piano. This is the first time the school had ever presented such a large chorus in part singing, and the performance was a credit to Mrs. Woodman.

The stage was cleverly decorated with a wigwam, and real pine trees to simulate the forest, with a big paper harvest moon. Mrs. Phyllis Dickey and Mrs. Ruth Lynch were in charge of the scenery.

Second Graders Pantomime

The words of the songs acted out in pantomime by second grade pupils under the direction of Mrs. Ann Baxter shared in making the entire performance very colorful.

The scene depicted Nokomis (Beverly Cuffley) rocking Hiawatha's cradle. Hiawatha as a small boy (Lawrence William) being taught by Nokomis, Hiawatha grown older (Robert Chittendon), being taught by Iagoo (Richard Ringel) how to shoot a bow and arrow, and spot the deer in the forest. Other characters in the pantomime were: warriors for the Death Dance, Leonard Sayers, Charles Sawyer, Donald Hargy, Roger Brown; the angry warrior, David Sanders; friends that helped drag the deer, Kenty McCully and J. H. Young; others attending the banquet were Lance Walden and Henry DesMarets. The bunny was Karen Jorgensen.

Recreation Dept. Runs Full Summer Schedule

Every day except Sundays from the closing to opening of school this year is accounted for in the 1949 Greenbelt summer recreation program, released this week by the city government.

Feature of the schedule will be the three-day Fourth of July celebration, with other highlights that include a tots' talent show on August 24, a water pageant on August 14, and track and swimming meets.

Tennis classes will be held Monday through Friday, with the 10- to 14-year-olds from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m.; the 14- to 19-year-olds from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.; and free play at 11:30.

Swimming classes will be held from 9 a.m. to noon Tuesday through Friday. The pool will be closed on Monday for cleaning purposes, and for checking records.

Bows, Bats, Arts

The recreation leaders will conduct archery classes Monday through Thursday. On Monday and Wednesday, from 9:30 to 11:30 the junior high age levels will be taught; on Tuesday and Thursday, adults, from 11 to noon.

The softball teams will take over Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 1 to 3 p.m. The same hours on Tuesday and Thursday will be given to the baseball teams.

The arts and crafts classes will run from 2:30 to 5 on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at the Drop Inn. The baby playgroups, which will again be sponsored by the recreation department, will be visited and checked on Tuesday and Thursday.

Seven- to ten-year-old boys will have tumbling classes from 2 to 3 p.m. on Friday, with the beginner class for girls to be held at the same time.

Football classes will be held on Monday and Wednesday from 4 to 5 p.m. on Braden field. Co-ed volleyball teams, of the junior and senior high age, will play on Tuesday from 7 to 8 p.m., with adult teams at the same hour on Thursday.

An adult basketball league will play on Friday from 7 to 8 p.m.

Tenants Transfer Between Projects

About five transfers to and five from the war housing to the original Greenbelt housing project are scheduled for this week, according to PHA Manager Charles M. Cormack. They mark the initial stages of a moving project which will get more fully under way during the coming months of July and August. The transfers are in accordance with the new PHA policy of allowing transfers from one project to another, where family needs and desires make a transfer feasible.

100 Qualify for Adjustment

All leases for the war project, except 20, have been signed and returned to the administration office, Mr. Cormack stated. About 100 families here have qualified for a rent adjustment. In the original section, about 550 out of 871 have been mailed out to tenants, with the rest going out rapidly. Mr. Cormack stated that about 350 families in "old" Greenbelt would be paying the maximum rents for their dwellings when the leases have been returned.

St. Hugh's Picnic Coming June 25

A cold supper plate to be served in the pavilion from 2 p.m. until dark will be an innovation at St. Hugh's third annual parish picnic, which will be held on Saturday, June 25, at the Greenbelt Lake from 11 a.m. until dark. The supper is under the supervision of Mrs. Lawrence Slight. George Holland is in charge of dart games and Mrs. Dolores Root of the cake table. There will be hot dogs and soft drinks, pony rides for the children, and bingo.

JCC Picnics Sunday

The annual picnic sponsored by the Jewish Community Center for the families of children attending the Hebrew Sunday School, will be held at the lake on Sunday, June 19 from 3 to 5 p.m.

A program of games has been arranged and refreshments will be served to all the children.

Athletic Club Starts Saturday Dance Series

At 10 o'clock Saturday night, June 18, the Athletic Club begins a series of weekly dances as the initial step in an elaborate program, which the board of directors hopes will revive the social activities of the Club. The board has also authorized the acquisition of another piano to replace the present antique. No effort will be spared to make these affairs as popular as they were a few years ago.

Kids Ask For More

By Frieda Perlzweig

A capacity house attended the Hansel and Gretel operetta at the Center auditorium Saturday night, June 11.

The parts were skillfully handled and well-performed by the children's glee clubs of Center and North End schools.

Thelma Finlay was responsible for the direction and production of the fine performance. She also accompanied the white-clad chorus of children. Dorothy East acted as stage manager, while Ellen Linson helped with dramatics.

Background

The settings, the lighting, the costumes, were all harmonious. They gave background and color to the music and acting.

The operetta received round after round of applause from an appreciative audience. Happy youngsters in the chairs listening and enjoying whispered, "We'd like to hear more music and see more acting like this."

Local Majorettes Win Trip To New York

Greenbelt's majorette team won first honors at the Lions Club contest held at Roosevelt high school last Friday when they competed against the Montgomery-Blair majorettes.

Montgomery-Blair High School's band won the contest from three competing school bands; Greenbelt, Roosevelt High and St. John's.

The winning band and majorettes will go to New York for four days on July 17 to compete in a nationwide band and drum majorette contest which will be part of the Lion's International Convention there.

Council Tables Pinball Action; Acts To Unify Housing Groups

By Sally Meredith

The Greenbelt Town Council formally became the Greenbelt City Council at its meeting Monday, June 13. After taking cognizance of that fact, it proceeded to act, enact, and react on a number of subjects, from the trash can issue to pin ball machines.

Too Many GVHCs

Most confusing of the items to come under discussion was the newest claimant for the title "Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation." Charles L. Redd made an unscheduled appearance with evidence to prove the validity of the group, of which he is chairman. The first time the existence of his organization was made known in March, when he appeared before another meeting of the town council held in joint session with Greenbelt Mutual Home Ownership Corporation, prior to testifying before a Congressional committee. At that time Redd described anonymously the housing group which he represented as "a veterans' housing cooperative."

Incorporated last week, in the meantime, was the Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation, with seven board members, five of whom double on the board of directors of Greenbelt Mutual Home Ownership Corporation. All are veterans, although the expressed intention is to permit equal status to veteran and non-veteran members when admitted to membership.

In a GMHOC membership meeting last night, attended by over 200 people including 131 family votes, a vote with only five dissenters transferred GMHOC membership and assets to this GVHC group. One of those opposing the transfer was A. C. Long. Redd, though not a member, was present. He explained that his group, unlike the other GVHC, is only a "de facto" organization.

Get Together, Boys!

In reply to questioning by council member Betty Harrington, Redd said that, unlike the other GVHC, the Redd group has no plans for using Greenbelt's undeveloped land for new houses. He said a major difference between the two groups is that the Redd organization will be a mutual group—in which title remains with the entire membership—only until the mortgages are paid off, at which time they plan to give outright deeds to the tenants. While admitting that no definite plans have been made by his group—another major difference with GMHOC, whose officers have laid the groundwork for operation after obtaining the property—Redd said they will be ready to "step in" when the proper time comes, which he estimated to be at least 18 months.

At Mrs. Harrington's suggestion, the council voted to act as a central agency to try to get the two would-be purchasing groups together in one organization. Mayor Thomas J. Canning pointed out that the recently-passed bill (authorizing the negotiated sale to residents rather than to outside speculative interests) mentioned the danger of two competing groups. Frank Lastner made the motion which passed with David Granahan and Allen D. Morrison dissenting, that the mayor call a meeting of the heads of the two organizations.

Blackball Pinballs

Considering Greenbelt's 435 to 70 vote against gambling machines in the recent county-wide referendum, and backing their pre-referendum statements, the council discussed methods for prohibiting operation of such devices in Greenbelt. Councilman Lastner announced that the Greenbelt Consumer Services board of directors, of which he is president, had at its latest board meeting outlawed the machines in any premises under their jurisdiction. It was agreed that action by the city council could wait for advice by the city solicitor, John S. White, who was not present at the meeting; also that positive action would be taken, if legally possible to pass such legislation in the face of county sanction through referendum.

A proposal by Lastner, passed unanimously by the council, may save Greenbelters a part of their new rent increase. Public Housing Administration will be asked to waive the utility increase allowed, inasmuch as the city will in the near future own the utilities, and will have to make rate adjustments at that time.

Trashcan Trouble

Mrs. Harrington reported a protest she had received from a resident on the city's new trash pick-up system, with its time-saving practice of leaving the trash cans outside the trash closet. City Manager Charles T. McDonald said that constant protests, prior to the new system, had been received from residents because only one day elapsed between their weekly pick-ups, leaving five days between the past pick-up of one week and the first trip of the following week.

Under the old system, he explained, it took five days to make two complete pick-up trips of the entire town. It was necessary, therefore, that people whose trash was picked up on Wednesday also have it picked up either Monday or Friday. To prevent this, he said, it was necessary to figure a way to save a day's time. Leaving the cans outside the closet was decided upon. McDonald suggested that anyone who for physical reasons cannot replace the heavy cans used in the older section of the city can have it done by the maintenance crew.

Further justification of leaving the cans outside, he added, is that the practice is more sanitary, since it gives the tenant an opportunity to clean, disinfect, and air the cans before replacing them.

Children's Orchestra

A community children's orchestra may be sponsored by the city, at the suggestion of Mrs. Harrington. Commenting on the success of the recent "Hansel and Gretel" musical production under the direction of Mrs. Gordon Finlay, Mrs. Harrington requested the city manager to investigate the possibilities of a children's orchestra.

The mayor commented on the loudness of the bells rung by ice cream vendors, saying that they should be muted somewhat, particularly during the afternoon nap time. Residents attending the meeting suggested that the frequency as well as loudness be decreased.

Municipal Matter

Other business included the announcement by the city manager, upon questioning by a citizen present, that when PHA gives authorization the "beautify Southway" project will get under way; the manager's statement that bids are being asked on the erection of a sign for the intersection of Edmonston Road and Southway; another announcement by McDonald that the courts behind 62 Ridge and 8 Laurel Hill will be used for a play area, and 7 and 9 Southway courts for a softball field.

The X-ray machine, the manager said, will be in the Center school the last week in June, and after July 4. He also commented on the fact that many Greenbelters do not seem to be aware that the lake area is closed after 11:30 p.m., although there is a sign on the gate to that effect.

Along Our Street with Aunt Penny

This morning, I visited Mrs. Evans to see if she had any old clothes for next week's rummage sale. A few minutes after I got there, little Charlie Evans came running into the house with tears streaming down his face. He'd been playing ball and had hurt his finger quite badly.

Mrs. Evans' telephone party line was in use at that moment, but when she explained that she wanted to make an emergency call, the party who was talking gave up the line at once. Then Mrs. Evans called the doctor, who said he'd be right over.

To me, this example of telephone courtesy and understanding brought home the importance of sharing our party lines. I think that when everyone on the line is thoughtful and considerate, it makes the service more useful and pleasant all the way around.

Junior Team Loses

The Greenbelt Boy's Club Junior baseball team lost a loosely played slugfest last Wednesday, to the Berwyn club by a score of 14-13. Billy Moore started for the home club and weathered a storm of hits and miscues for four innings before being replaced by Don Hannahs.

Berwyn took advantage of errors in the first inning to jump ahead 6-0, but the locals tied it up and went ahead in the third. In the seventh, pinch-hitter Roger Frady led off with a triple, Jim Donevan doubled, and then Bob Kosisky banded a four-bagger into deep center to put Greenbelt ahead 13-12. Darkness and an error put across the winning run in the seventh.

Lee Duter led the locals with 2 for 4, while Vern Vickers collected a triple.

Midgets Win Two More

The undefeated Boys' Club Midget baseball team made it twelve in a row over the weekend by knocking off the Edmonston Midgets, 10-4, and bowling over the Lanham aggregation by the lopsided margin of 30-0.

Tony Baker and Johnny Lewis shared pitching honors in the Edmonston game. Jim Stripling pitched the first four innings of the Lanham game giving up only one hit. Johnny Lewis worked the last two, setting the visitors down in order in both innings. Bobby Miller was behind the bat in both games. Stewart Knott, Merle Nelson and Miller poled round-trippers to feature the hitting.

Seniors Defeat Berwyn

After trailing for eight innings, the Senior Unit of the Boys' Club rallied in the last inning to eke out a 4-3 win over the neighboring Berwyn baseball team last Saturday afternoon.

On the short end of a 3-1 count, the locals outlook was anything but bright as they came up to bat in the bottom half of the ninth inning. Bo Hause led off with a single to right field and with one out, Lewis walked. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch. The next batter fanned, adding to the gloom of the home club.

Billy May proved to be the Greenbelt hero by slashing a hard double to left-center to tie up the ball game. May advanced to third when the second baseman was found guilty of interference. Gene Kelleher then hit a liner to the first baseman which he couldn't handle, thus ending the ball game. Bo Hause was on the mound for the winners, giving up four hits while striking out nine.

Greenbelt travels to Lanham this Saturday where they hope to continue their winning ways.

Swim Instruction

Beginning swimmers who have registered for swimming classes in July will report to the pool with swim suits on Monday, June 20 to be screened, according to the recreation department.

This is the only day children will be assigned to the proper beginners' class.

The pool will be opened to all July beginners from 9 to 11 a.m.

200 Hear Concert

The Washington Civic Symphony Orchestra presented a free concert to an enthusiastic audience of approximately two hundred people on June 12 at the Center school auditorium. City Manager McDonald welcomed the musicians, and expressed the appreciation felt by the citizens of Greenbelt in playing host to them.

Conductor Essers of Washington and David Burchuk of Greenbelt shared the honor of presenting the program, including works by Dvorak, Thompson, Puccini, and Brahms.

In a touching memorial to Patricia Brown, Bach's "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" was given. A collection taken at the close of the performance by the Pat Brown Memorial Committee totaled over forty-six dollars, which will be used in purchasing books for the Greenbelt Library. Further donations may be sent to Mrs. Helen Oring, 1-H Westway.

The Police Blotter

There were four complaints about prowlers this week. One resident said an attempt was made to open her screen door; footprints were found under the window of another complainant; the third involved a person in a tree peeping into the windows of a home; and the fourth turned out to be a newspaper delivery boy.

A resident of East Riverdale reported that a watch and a purse were stolen from her while she was in the swimming pool. She was advised to advertise in the COOPERATOR, on the chance that it may have been recovered. (!!!)

A complaint was made about a Good Humor man who came into the court every evening at nine and awakened several children. "They would be in a bad humor because of the Good Humor," he is alleged to have said.

The consistent removal of swimming pool tickets from the baskets of her children, was the cause of one complaint by a Greenbelt mother.

Two young men from East Riverdale were apprehended after they had tampered with several airplanes at Schrom Airport. The boys and their parents visited the police station later in the week to discuss the matter.

A back-up light was stolen from the car of one resident and another person reported that his car had been scratched by children playing in the garages.

A complaint was made about loud yelling at the Center. It was disclosed to be shouts of lost persons from out-of-town who were trying to locate friends at the lake area. They were brought together by the police near the filling station.

A drunk and disorderly person at the Legion Dance was escorted by the police to the Hyattsville jail. No charges were made.

Two boys were caught tampering with tools and equipment at the new church site.

Nicholas Pergola, 16-F Ridge, was cut severely on the leg by glass when a soft-drink bottle exploded. He was taken to a local physician where four stitches were necessary to close the wound.

A complaint was made about girls wearing shorts in the drug store. The complainant hung up the phone before identifying himself. The girls were gone when the police arrived.

Another anonymous caller informed the police that a party was locked in at the lake area. When the police arrived, they discovered a post uprooted, and the people gone.
